Lead stocks fell to 2 3-s below yesterday's closing level and the net decline in the principal railroads extended to over a point.

The extreme decline in Baltimore & Ohlo and Missouri Pacific reached two points and prices in some cases fell to the lowest of the week.

There was very effective selling of American Tobacco toward noon, which put it almost a point below yeaterday's lowest quotation. In the general list the tendency continued downward, but offerings slackened at noon. The bond market was dull and irregular.

While the velume of stock offered this afternoon was small, there was no relief from the weakness, except from occasional covering by traders at advantageous prices. Indications of long stock being unloaded in some of the mercurial specialities encouraged the bear element. Prices railled a point in some cases, but the market had become semi-stagnant by the end of the hour.

A full recovery from the the loss in Sugar made the bears doubtful, and they bought some stock to cover short contracts. The market became lifeless at the higher level, and when Tobacco was raided down to 31 1-4 prices gave way all around to about the lowest. The closing was active and weak at wide net losses.

The total sales of stocks to-day were 52,725 shares, and of bonds 11,232,000. The total sales of stocks to-day were 592,739 shares, and of bonds $1,232,000
